Introduction

September was a vibrant month for the Insurance Institute of Zimbabwe, featuring our Fundamentals for Pension Funds and Trustees short course. We also participated in the ZAFA Annual Conference on sustainability and attended the ZIMIND Annual Sustainability Summit. Looking ahead, we're excited about the IIZ Annual Conference 2024 and wish our students the best for their upcoming exams from October 8th to 11th. Stay tuned for more updates!

Investment Fundamentals Masterclass Recap

On September 13th, we conducted a short course entitled "Fundamentals for Pension Funds and Trustees" at Cresta. This course equipped pension fund trustees with essential tools and knowledge to effectively manage fund asset investments in collaboration with investment managers. We were delighted to welcome over 20 delegates, including two representatives from Botswana, which enriched the diversity and depth of discussions throughout the event.

ZAFA ANNUAL CONFERENCE - 18 to 21 September

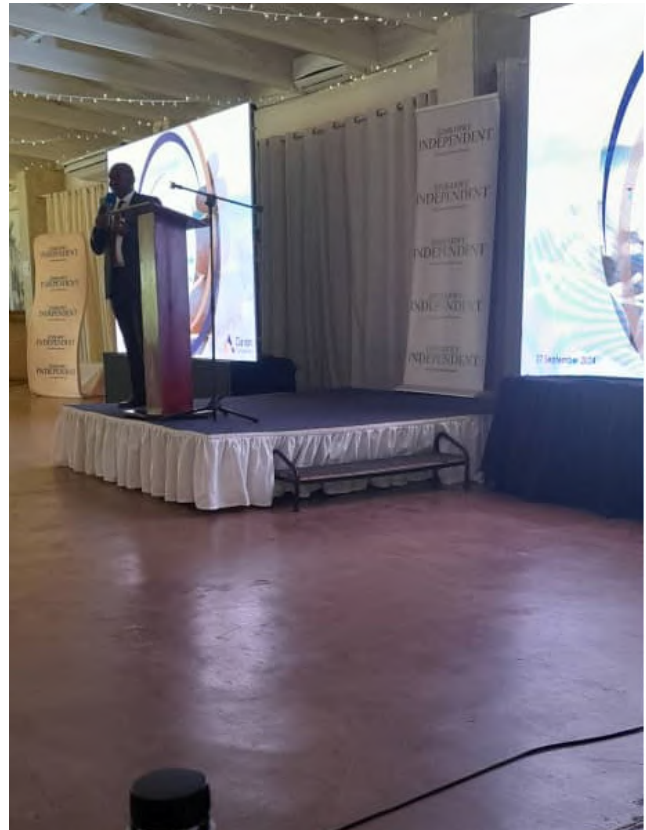

The Insurance Institute of Zimbabwe attended the highly anticipated Zimbabwe Association of Funeral Assurers (ZAFA) Annual Conference at Monte Claire in Inyanga. The conference featured thought-provoking discussions on sustainability challenges, post-pandemic adaptations, and the evolving dynamics of the funeral assurance industry. Key topics included mentoring for resilience, preparing professionals for disruptive shifts, navigating Zimbabwe's changing currency landscape, and exploring opportunities for growth. The event attracted participation from various funeral service providers, highlighting the importance of responsible leadership in driving positive change within the industry.

In conclusion, The Insurance Institute of Zimbabwe gained key insights at the ZAFA Annual Conference, focusing on sustainability, post-pandemic shifts, and leadership in the evolving funeral assurance industry.

ZIMIND Annual Sustainability Summit

In its efforts to foster innovation and expand its horizons, the Insurance Institute of Zimbabwe (IIZ) attended the Annual Sustainability Summit Zimbabwe, hosted by ZIMIND at Wild Geese, Harare, from September 26-27, 2024. The summit featured a range of presentations on sustainability, including the role of insurance companies in the net-zero transition, unlocking climate finance for energy access, and the importance of ISSB and IFRS in sustainability reporting. Key initiatives were discussed, with an emphasis on the need for educational institutions to promote sustainability and ESG awareness.
